

Crepin M Mahop, Ph. D.
703 Palamar Turn
Lanham, MD, 20706

Dr. Mahop has been a Professor of Mathematics at Howard University Mathematics Department in Washington DC, from 1980 to 1985, and since 2003, where is also the Director of Undergraduate Studies.

He was formerly Head of the Department of Mathematics and Computer Science, and Director of General Administration of the ENSAI-IUT, University of Ngaoundéré, Cameroon.

He is:

- President, Cameroon Congress of America (CAMCONGRESS), a 501 (C)3 NGO whose main purpose is to help facilitate the integration of Cameroonian Immigrants in the American Economic, Cultural, Educational, Social and Political ways of life.
- Founder of the Amical Bassa General in Washington DC in 1982.
- Advocate of the promotion of the Bassa Mpoo Bati traditions and culture in Cameroon.
- Advisor of CamRef-USA or Cameroon War Relief Fund-USA, a 501 (C) 3 NGO, organized in 2015 to lead an effort in raising funds to help alleviate the suffering of the populations caused by the devastations of the Boko Haram war in Cameroon.
- Board member of the Board of Directors of the Friends of the Buea School for the Deaf (FOBSD).
- Shepherd of the Paraclete Charismatic Prayer Group of St. Martin Catholic Church in Washington DC and active member of the Ephphata Fraternity.
- Sir Knight, Bishop Walsh Assembly, and Knight of Columbus at the Mother Seton Council, St. Matthias Catholic Church in Lanham, MD.
- Board member, Board of Directors, Friends of the Buea School for the Deaf.